AUTOCROSS SEASON STARTS MARCH 21

By Tommy Wilson

The start of the 2010 Smoky Mountain Region autocross season is Sunday 21st at Pellissippi State Community College. Registration is 8.00 - 10.00 am. First car off at 11.00 am. Autocross school is on Saturday 4/3. Pre register for either event by emailing Chairman, Jonathan Foulds at jonathanfoulds@yahoo.com.

The season promises to be an exciting one with a lot of participation by not just PCA members but also plenty of SCCA drivers as well. We know several new members giving it their first try and some others who have given it just one afternoon. Foulds and several experienced members have volunteered to act as instructors for those who might not be sure of their knowledge and skill. There are "loaner" helmets available for those who have not invested in that one piece of safety equipment.

There is no reason for people to shy away from autocross. It is an autosport with little danger of hurting you or your car. Most runs are completed in just over 60 seconds and almost all courses are designed so the driver shifts into second gear and never shifts again, allowing he or she to concentrate on driving the car.

To be ready when you arrive, a driver would want to take everything out of the car that would be considered "loose." The floormats on the driver's side should be removed so they do not get tangled around the driver's feet. All fluids should be topped off. The battery should be secure, so as not to move at all when the inspector pushes on it with his hand. Car should not have any serious leaks or be smoking to extreme. Lug nuts should be tightened to approximately 95 lb-ft. The safety inspector will do that for you if you do not have a torque wrench. Tire need to be in good condition.

Don't be shy! Come out and fine a great way to learn even more about your Porsche. Ask for an instructor if you do not know where to start. I will volunteer to be an "Autocross Buddy" for an entire season if that is something someone might think they need. I an sure others would do the same for you.

FROM THE PRESIDENT
JEFF RUSSELL

February has come and gone and with it some pretty harsh weather sandwiched around a great weekend that contained the Great Porsche Show Off. The weather was perfect, the cars were abundant (40+) and the Porsche people were friendly and enthusiastic. Thanks to all of you who came and made this one of the best Show Offs ever.

March brings three opportunities for you Porsche fanatics to gather and have some fun. The St. Patrick's Day party on the 17th at the Lakeside Tavern in Concord is a great way to celebrate your Irishness even if you are only Irish for one day a year. The drive out on the 20th to Tommy Wilson's home in Athens will allow you to exercise those Porsches on some good roads after Tommy fills you up with grilled burgers. Finally, the first autocross of the season is scheduled for the 21st at Pellissippi State. As you can see, there is plenty of opportunity this month to gather with good people for a great time.

I want to thank Rick and Janis Berry of Eurotech Knoxville for agreeing to sponsor the autocross series this year. Rick and Janis are active participants in the club and are excited about working with Jonathan and other club members to make this year's autocross series a success. Word has it that Janis just got a 944S to run in the series.

A reminder that registration for the Porsche Parade opens on March 9th. This year it is in a resort area near Chicago; close enough for several of us to attend. It will be my first Parade and I'm really looking forward to it.

I hope to see many of you this month at one of the functions. You are a great group of people and you make any gathering a fun time.

EDITOR'S NOTE

IT STARTED WITH THE LADDERBACK 500

When I was a kid I would wait with excitement for the latest edition of the Sears & Roebuck catalog. That excitement came from knowing the latest in toy engineering was going to be shown in those colorful pages. My brother, Gary, and I were country boys and did not get a regular opportunity to visit the stores in town, and, besides, no store could carry all the toys displayed in the bible of toys. Being from a family of modest means (okay we were poor but classy) the ability to purchase more than one of the toys was nearly impossible. The purchase was always modest.

Gary and I would get a set of six-shooter cap pistols and maybe a cowboy hat for Christmas but the real treasures to me were the little cars. They were of all varieties but simple; Hot Wheels had not been invented yet.

The regular game we played inside the house was "racecars." We would take two of the old ladder back chairs, and put them together in some fashion that, in our minds, resembled race cars, as we knew them. Our father had gained access to a couple discarded fiberglass helmets from his work place. They resembled the ones we would see in magazines and in movies. Actually, they looked much like the hard hats we see on construction sites today.

With the chairs lined up side by side, we were always on the front row of the Indy 500 (the only race we knew of in the 1950's) and would battle neck and neck for at least an hour before the first pitstop for Koolaid.

Today, I search for the latest catalog from Sears to see what tools I need to work on the latest Porsche I have under the carport. The car (toy) is still a modest purchase but it puts that same smile on my face.

Now, I often sit in that driver's seat, put my helmet on, and while waiting for the autocross starter to signal the beginning of my run, think of Gary and I battling and bumping fenders in the Ladderback 500.

HEARD 'ROUND THE REGION

By Vic Rola

Clyde Peery reports that he is coming along nicely thank you, after his recent shoulder surgery. No manual transmission shifting for a while yet...

The Tennessee Region folks were not amused when Mother Nature threw a major winter storm on the menu of events for Winterfest. Attendance was nearly cut in half, and included yours truly. Next year we'll try again.

Tommy Wilson took delivery of a silover Euro 911SC to replace his yellow Boxster. As the SC has headers rather than heater boxes, he's waiting for a little warm weather to do some driving. Nice car Tommy...

Jim and Mike are trying out electronic registration for this years Spring Thing.

A Parade of Thoughts, or Thoughts on Parade

The first Porsche Parade I attended, was held in Reston, VA. I can still remember my disbelief that so many Porsches would gather at one spot at one time! The last one we went to was in Charlotte. I've attended many Porsche events over the years, where the number of cars, and their quality, was absolutely astonishing (did you go to Rennsport Reunion III?).

Parades, however, are different animals. It's an opportunity to show your Porsche at a world class concours..an opportunity to try a rallye, both TSD (Time..Speed..Distance) or gimmick..an opportunity to autocross against some of North Americas' best..and an opportunity to get involved in a myriad of tech sessions, and classes, not only on Porsche but also on PCA. Parade locations are also not to be missed..The grass at Ashevilles' Biltomore..The beaches of the left coast at the Parade in SanDiego..The vistas of the Parade at Mont Treblant in Quebec!!!

The social aspect of a Parade is not to be dismissed. The 700+ cars and their owners, from all over (and not just the USA), are anxious to look at your Porsche, and to chat with you about theirs or their escapades in PCA, and to generally make a new friend. Friends? Some PCA friends only see each other at Parade! Friends I email with all year long, end up in my autocross class at Parade! How about an opportunity to meet PCA Staff, or even better, a member of the Porsche family? Ask Carol about her conversation with Peter Porsche at the Charlotte Parade!

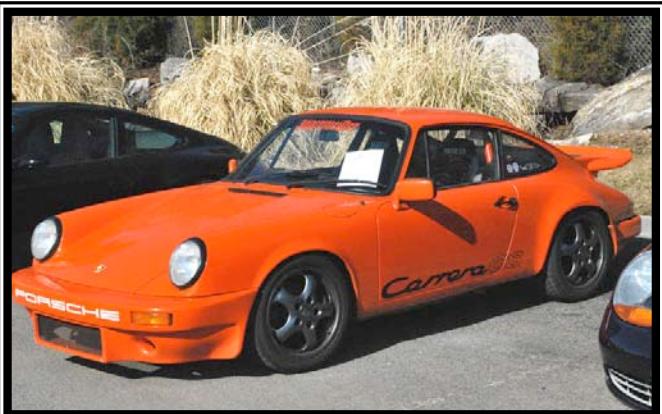

This years' Parade is in St. Charles, IL, as many of you know (full information on line at parade2010.pca.org). Ten/twelve hours north west of Knoxville. My thoughts are already on the Parade. Carol and I will enter our car in Concours, run the TSD Rallye, and Autocross. We'll do a couple of the social functions as well. What about you? Is there a Parade in your future? If not this years, how about next years..in Vermont!!!

Just thinking...
